THEY SAY

What did they do with the indignation meeting?

Brave (?) men should not back down.

It is the brave man we love.

Never despair as long as there is life.

Great are the deeds of honest men.

Harrison will be the man.

Disappointments will never come single handed.

Never desert a true friend.

Always protect the interest of those in whom you are interested.

It is out of the reach of the North West Bank.

Collect it if you can old man.

We are not the kind that can be bull dozed.

You will have a taste of it when you try.

Nothing will give greater satisfaction than a trial.

Some men think that they are sharp.

All men are not fools.

Some people are not very select with their company.

The Harrison and Morton league is booming.

Let every honest republican join.

It will be the club of the town.

It will be strong as well as wide awake.

The Oceola fair is a success.

Daniel Freeman is an artist.

He understands his business.

The Harrison and Morton club will set the boys to work.

The field is large gentlemen don't be neasy.

Endorse the administration is what you should do.

When you are in trouble always consult your best friend.

The bride and groom were out at church last Sabbath morning.

Three persons congratulated them.

Madame Ray was not along.

Some people are very cheeky.

The lady on 15th St., took it very hard.

It is a shame that she was treated so.

Someone sent her a basket of flowers with his compliments.

The republican league is a thing of the present.

Gleason is with the boys.

Let every republican join the League.

Consolidation is what we want.

We are servants because we don't do for ourselves.

Let us be up and doing and cease begging.

Beggars can hardly succeed.

There is strength in harmony.

Fast girls can't expect to be respected.

Is it right and proper that respectable people should be associated with the demi monde?

Ought not persons be careful whom they invite to their homes.

Some girls are careless in selecting their company.

Those men who have given note outside of the Legion of Honor has done so in violation of the constitution.

They can be sued just the same as any individual who has given a negotiable instrument.

Some men will learn sense one these days.

Come to the next meeting of the League.

The Bee will move in its new office next week.

Look out for our new dress.

TWO EDGED DAMASCUS.

Editor Chase, of the Bee, wields

a two-edged Damascus. In his article on Lynch vs. Townsend, he deliberately slays Lynch and then proceeds to decimate Townsend.—Weekly "Sentinel."

NEWS OF INTEREST.

There are sixty-six liquor saloons kept in New York by women.

Eight billion letters go through the world's P. O. in one year.

It is said that the colored Farmers Alliance of the South, has a membership of a hundred thousand.

In Hayti and San Domingo there are nearly two million of independent self-governing negroes.

Women are said to have traveled over a hundred miles in Wyoming to deposit their ballots at a recent election.

It is estimated that the number of eggs annually consumed by the people of the U. S., is 1,320,000,000 dozen.

A society has been started in N. Y. city by certain women for the advancement of propriety and frugality in dresses.

In the asylum of Georgia the whites are ten to one black. In the penitentiary the blacks are 9 to one white.

Last week two hundred white men in Annapolis, Md., started to the jail to lynch a colored man, charged with outrage upon a white girl. On reaching the house, the would-be lynchers found it guarded by six hundred colored men armed with pistols, guns, clubs and whatever else could be used as a weapon. The lynching was postponed.—Appeal.

A cat owned by Charles Rich, of Britton, in South Dakota, is a strange freak of nature. The color is white, with mouse colored spots. Its form is like a cat in front, but the hind part is like a rabbit. It has long hind legs, and usually hops like a rabbit, but when it tries to walk like a cat the length of its hind legs causes them to swing around, first to one side, then to the other. Its tail is short and its fur fine and soft, like that of a rabbit. It hides and sleeps most of the day, but toward night it goes around hopping and playing like a rabbit. It catches mice, and will play with them as any other cat. It lives upon milk and other food like a cat.—Peoples Journal.

THE WORLD'S FIRST WEDDING.

What a morning that was of the world's first wedding! Sky without a cloud. Atmosphere without a chill. Foliage without a crumpled leaf. Meadows without a thorn. It shall be in church, the great temple of a world, sky-domed, mountain-pillared, sapphire roofed. The sparkling waters of the Gihon and the Hiddekel will make the fount of the temple. Larks, robins and gold finches will chant the wedding march. Violet, lily and rose burning incense in the morning sun. Luxuriant vines sweeping their long trails through the forest aisle upholstered of a spring morning. Wild beasts standing out side the circle looking on, like family servants from the back door gazing upon the nuptial; the eagle, king of birds; the locust, king of insects; the lion, king of beasts, waiting. Carpet of grass like emerald for the human pair to walk on. Hum of excitement, as there always is before a ceremony. Grass blades and leaves whispering, and the birds a-chatter, each one to his mate. Hush, all the clouds. Hush, all the birds. Hush, the waters, for the king of the human race advances, and his bride. Perfect man, leading to the altar a perfect woman. God, her father gives away the bride, and angels are the witnesses, and tears of morning dew stand in the blue eyes of the violets. And Adam takes the round hand, that has never been worn with work or stung with pain, into his own stout grasp and says: "This is now bone of my bone and flesh of my flesh." Tumults of joy break forth and all the trees of the woods clasp their hands, and all the galleries of the forest sound with carol and chirp and chant, and the circle of Edenic happiness is complete; for while every quail hath answering quail, and every fish answering fish, and every fowl answering fowl, and every beast of the forest a fit companion, at last man, the immortal, has for mate, woman, the immortal.

Married—Wednesday, the 1st day of June, in the year 1, Adam, the first man, to Eve, the first woman, High Heaven officiating.—T. De Witt Talmage, in Ladies' Home Journal.

VA. AVENUE BAPT. CHURCH.

The fact that two of the notes of the Va. Avenue Baptist Church of this city fell into the hands of an anxious creditor, and the fact that the trustees managed to raise it all $763, (except $80 presented by Rev. J. H. Kirchbair, D. D., late pastor of the 1st Baptist Church, (white) and $18 by four of the sister churches into sums of $10, $15, $3, $3.07 and $27 from among their own members and congregation) speaks well for the financial ability of its people and their independence as a church. Many thanks were tendered to Dr. Gray, by the pastor on his return home; whom he said had done far more than he could have done had he been home. The note which caused the necessity of their hurried embarrassment, was collected in twelve days and came due, it seems, while their pastor was in Pittsburgh, Pa., by previous arrangement; but the assistance of Dr. Gray was a great help. The trustees on Tuesday evening at their Praise meeting, by arrangement made at a special conference of the officers and trustees, corrected their statement made to the members and general public during their pastor's absence, which gave rise to unkind feeling against him.

Secretary of the board, W. H. Thomas, said, "it was principally through my statement of misunderstanding, with no intention to do the pastor any wrong, that the members and public were misled." Paymaster John T. Fitzhugh, said, "the crash came upon us by reason of F. R. Winslow, not standing to his word, that he would give us until next April to fix affairs, providing we give him his interest."
